

Millennium Supplier Information

Our sourcing process is designed to ensure equal and fair treatment of suppliers so that they can fully participate in a competitive procurement process. The relationships we create help us achieve our corporate goals.

Millennium is committed to developing mutually advantageous business relationships and we seek the best valued, highest quality products and services by encouraging competition among all suppliers and we insist on absolute integrity in all of our interactions. We conduct international purchasing in accordance with the laws, customs, and practices of foreign countries, consistent with United States laws, Millennium's policies, and Ethical Standards and Guidelines (see document).

Millennium's Supplier Diversity Program

We welcome all small and diverse suppliers who can add value to our products and meet our requirements on a competitive basis to register as prospective suppliers.

Millennium's Supplier Diversity Program's principle mission is to:

- strengthen our supplier base and invest in our community by providing equal access to business opportunities at Millennium for diverse suppliers; and
- to aid Millennium in meeting Federal subcontracting purchasing goals while ensuring that Millennium realizes the benefits of competitive pricing and quality products and services.

We are committed to extending business opportunities to viable and diverse small business enterprises and developing new and innovative ways to utilize small business and specific subcategories of small business including:

- Small Disadvantaged Business
- 8 (A) Small Business (must be certified by SBA)
- Women-Owned Small Business
- Hubzone Small Business (must be certified by SBA)
- Veteran-Owned Small Business
- Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business

We will continue to build and expand our Supplier Diversity Program, and are also asking our major suppliers to help us meet our long-term objectives by increasing their supplier diversity efforts as well.

If you wish to participate in Millennium's Supplier Diversity Program ("SDP"), please notify us at: sdp@mpi.com.

Millennium's Supplier Registration Process

The first step for any potential supplier to take in seeking an opportunity to do business with Millennium is to contact us at sdp@mpi.com. Please be sure to note if you meet a category of diverse supplier and note all of the capabilities of your company. If there is a need for the type of product or service that you provide, a Sourcing professional may contact you to explore potential opportunities.

Please note that Millennium selects suppliers from a broad, competitive marketplace, and providing this information to us does not make your company automatically eligible to participate in our supplier selection process or constitute approval of your company as an authorized Millennium supplier.
